

IN OTHER WORDS

A special thanks to Deputy Warden Morton and Chaplain Fryeder for their gracious hospitality yesterday. Also, thanks to Amandia Callen for going above and beyond the call of duty to help us with audio visuals. I know all of you had other things that also needed your attention. The chapel helpers were awesome. They sensed what needed to be done and did it. There was a lot of energy and enthusiasm in each service. They made most crowds I speak to seem comatose in comparison. It was sincerely a joy being there. We hope your yard is better because of our presence. The ladies that were with me all said they were blessed. I think they want to come back, but that will have to wait until after session.

Thanks for lunch. It was not the spread I consumed at my son's last night, as we celebrated Christmas with my sons and their families, but it was adequate and tasty.

God bless you. Have a wonderful Christmas and Happy New Year. Seriously, if I can help you in anyway let me know.

preciated. They look great and feel warm! I am enclosing a letter for your vets in hopes you can pass it on from us.

Coffee Bunker is a place for our veterans to connect with each other, hang out, find all sorts of resources to help them settle into their civilian lives and families, find jobs, help with addictions, get legal assistance, spend volunteer hours helping, participate in yoga or Tai-Chi, and other helpful and/or relaxing opportunities.

Our main goal is to support veterans in every way we can to help them successfully reintegrate into family and community. We sincerely hope to see your men someday here at Coffee Bunker. Meanwhile, we are once again grateful for those wonderful handmade hats and gloves.

Thank you Mr. Bear.

Yours sincerely,

Tulsa District Community Corrections,
Thank you for partnering with the Community Food Bank of Eastern Oklahoma. We are very grateful for your support throughout the year, but it is especially appreciated as the holidays approach. The holidays should be a time to celebrate with loved ones, not stress about where you'll get your next meal.

Thanks to you, more families will be able to gather around a table full of food. Because of your support, the holiday season will be a little brighter for so many of our neighbors.

Your generosity makes a big difference and directly impacts lives in our community. Every dollar and every donation of food, big or small, moves us closer to food security. We appreciate your support and we know the families you are helping feed do also. Thank you so very much!

Sincerely,

MAGGIE HOEY
