

SOUTHWEST DISTRICT COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS (SWDCC)

Hosts July 2015 Board of Corrections Meeting

by Anita Alford

Board of Corrections July 2015 meeting was hosted by the Southwest District Community Corrections Supervisor Jeff Woody in Lawton at the City Hall Banquet Room. Chairman Gross opened the meeting with special greetings by Lawton Mayor Fred

Fitch. Attendees were invited to tour the 158 capacity Lawton Community Corrections Center and observe a Transition Program being taught by a volunteer; visit the Medical-Dental Unit which also services five community work centers and three private county jail facilities, met with Food Services Supervisor, Records Unit, Case Managers and other Security staff. Guests in attendance at the Board meeting included Senator Don Barrington and Cameron University President, John McArthur.

Angela Hearrell, Assistant District Supervisor with SWDCC, visits with Irma Newburn, BOC member.

Al Kelly, SWDCC Supervisor Jeff Woody, and BOC member Gene Haynes visit before the meeting begins.

Front row: (L-R) Anita Alford, ODOC Director Robert Patton and ADS Angela Hearrell; back row: (L-R) Dwayne Janis, Josh Young and DS Jeff Woody.

Associate Director Ed Evans, District Supervisor Jeff Woody and BOC member Irma Newburn.