Re: General Election Ballot Certification

---

The Republican National Committee anticipates that Donald Trump and Mike Pence will be nominated as the Republican Party's candidates for President and Vice President, respectively. The official nomination will occur during the 2020 Republican National Convention, which is scheduled to begin August 24, 2020.

We will formally certify the Party's nominees as soon as the official nomination is complete. The information provided in this memorandum is, therefore, conditional upon the candidates' actual nomination at that time. The candidates' names should appear on the ballot as indicated below.

Anticipated Republican Nominee for President of the United States:

Donald J. Trump

Anticipated Republican Nominee for Vice President of the United States:

Michael R. Pence

Please let me know if you need any additional information for the purpose of conditionally preparing your ballots. I can be reached at [REDACTED] if you need more information at this time. Thank you for your assistance with this matter.

CERTIFICATION OF NOMINATION

This form is to certify that the individuals named below are the candidates of the Republican Party of the United States for President and Vice President of the United States, respectively, provided that this certification is made conditional until the completion of such steps as may be required by the Call for the 2020 Republican National Convention, The Rules of the Republican Party, and the Rule 37(e) National Convention Procedures to make such nominations the official action of the Convention:

For President of the United States:

Donald J. Trump

For Vice President of the United States:

Michael R. Pence

Ronna McDaniel, Chairman
Republican National Committee
