UNANIMOUS JOINT APPLICATION FOR SETTLEMENT AND DISMISSAL

Come now the Plaintiff Oklahoma Ethics Commission (the Commission) through counsel Drew Edmondson and Defendant Kendra Coleman by permission of her attorney, Joe E. White, granted to Henry A. Meyer, and inform the Court of the following matters.

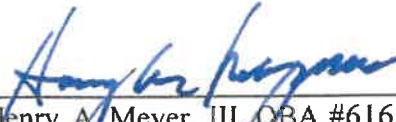

1. Mr. Meyer has communicated with counsel for all present and former defendants and secured the authority of all present and former defendants to the terms of this Joint Application for Settlement and dismissal.
2. Plaintiff Commission and all present and former Defendants join in moving the Court to withdraw and vacate all of its orders granting any motion to dismiss entered in this action.

3. Plaintiff Commission and all present and former Defendants agree and request the Court to accept and order the dismissal with prejudice of all present and former Defendants, and all present and former Defendants release the Plaintiff Commission, all of its officers, employees, and counsel, from all claims of any nature arising from the filing and prosecution of this case. All present and former parties further request the Court to order the dismissal of this action.
4. Plaintiff Commission and all present and former Defendants request the Court to state in its order of dismissal that all parties, present and former, shall bear their own costs and attorney fees in this matter.
5. Plaintiff Commission and all present and former Defendants join in moving the Court's entry of the accompanying Order of dismissal.

Respectfully submitted,

Drew Edmondson, OBA #2628
