Farmers Market Set For Dog Days

The Lawton Farmers Market will have its second annual Dog Days at Saturday's market.

Pet owners are invited to bring their dogs to the market for a morning of shopping and four-legged fun. There will be pet portraits taken by professional photographer Milyah Arnold as well as dog-oriented booths, handmade dog treats, free giveaways and a raffle for a gift bag with over $110 worth of pet products donated by Petsense. According to event coordinator Lisa Roberts, "We love our canine friends at the Lawton Farmers Market, and we like to give everyone an opportunity to bring their dogs out to visit."

Dogs should be on a leash at all times at the event. The event will be held at the Lawton Farmers Market location in the parking lot of the Great Plains Coliseum, 920 S. Sheridan Road. Fit Kids of Southwest Oklahoma will be present to hand out free water.

The Southwest Oklahoma Growers Association will hold its monthly meeting at 6 p.m.
