

Durant Art Walk Features Local Students

Posted: Oct 01, 2014 10:49 AM CDT

By Lisanne Anderson

The October Art Walk in Durant is one you won't want to miss. On Thursday, October 2nd from 5:00 to 7:00 pm student artwork from Durant Intermediate School, Durant Middle School, Northwest Heights, Robert E. Lee, & Washington Irving will be displayed in business windows.

Local artists will be displaying, selling, and demonstrating their art. There are also lots of unique handmade items that make great gifts. The downtown businesses will be open for those who want to shop after normal business hours.

The Bryan County Coalition Turning Point will also be having their Fall into Family Fitness & Fun Fair at Market Square from 4:00 to 7:00 pm. They will have lots of free activities including, family scavenger hunt, health screenings, fun physical activity, games, information on health topics, and community resources.

If that isn't enough to bring you downtown on October 2nd, the Durant High School Homecoming Parade begins at 6:00 p.m.

Thursday, October 2nd Times of Events

4:00 to 7:00 pm - Fall into Family Fitness & Fun Fair 2014

5:00 to 7:00 pm - Art Walk in Downtown Durant 6:00 pm - Durant High School Homecoming Parade

For more information: <http://www.durantmainstreet.org/>