

Roundup: Family Fun Day Saturday at Blanchard's Lions Park

Wednesday, October 10, 2007 12:24 am

Blanchard Family Fun Day is planned for 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday at Blanchard's Lions Park, 400 S.W. 7th St. Participants are asked to enter the park from the south side entrance due to other events going on, organizers said.

The day is planned for families, and the Burrito Grill will provide lunch at a cost of $3-$5 per meal.

After raising money to donate new playground equipment, Nu Chi has scheduled an unveiling for noon. Other activities will include a puppet show, arts -- crafts for children and free dental screenings. Also, residents will have opportunities to receive free bike helmets, smoke alarms and car seats, according to organizers.

The event is sponsored by the Blanchard Community Coalition, A Turning Point Partnership, McClain County Health Department and NAIC, a United Way Agency.

For more information or to reserve a booth, call Amanda James at 366-3407 or Alexandria Hart-Smith at 579-2251.