

Plans readied for Blanchard Family Fun Day Oct. 13

Tuesday, October 2, 2007 12:24 am

The Blanchard Community Coalition, A Turning Point Partnership, the McClain County Health Department and NAIC, a United Way Agency, are sponsoring Family Fun Day from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Oct. 13 at Blanchard Lion's Park, 400 S.W. 7th St.

Blanchard families are invited to come out and have a good time, including a noon ribbon-cutting ceremony to unveil new playground equipment funded by Nu Chi, a puppet show, arts -- crafts for children, and lots of other family oriented activities, organizers said.

Residents will have opportunities for free bike helmets, free smoke alarms, free car seats and free dental screenings.

The Burrito Grill will provide lunch for $3-$5 per meal.

For more information or to reserve a booth, contact Amanda James, 366-3407, or Alexandria Hart-Smith at 579-2251.