

Groups awarded drug-fighting grant

Posted: Saturday, September 18, 2010 1:54 am

Norman Addiction Information and Counseling, a United Way Agency, in partnership with the McClain County Health Department and the Blanchard Community Coalition, A Turning Point Partnership, recently was awarded a five-year $110,000 Drug Free Communities federal grant, according to a news release from NAIC.

The newly awarded grant will help the Blanchard Community Coalition better address youth alcohol, tobacco and other drug abuse throughout McClain County.

— Transcript staff