Patrons take their pick at Farmers' Market

Marla Coppin, left, assists customers Saturday while working at the Coppin Produce booth at the Muskogee Farmers' Market. Coppin said she and other family members farm is a 2.5-acre plot near Webbers Falls. Doug Walton, the coordinator of the Muskogee County Turning Point Coalition's food and fitness initiative and the director of Muskogee Farmers' Market, said the twice-weekly market has drawn three or four new vendors this year. In addition to fresh produce, vendors offer fresh herbs, cut flowers and a variety of other products. Muskogee Farmers' Market is open from 8 a.m. to noon Saturdays and 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Wednesdays.
