

Students can enter essay contest "Why I choose to be tobacco free"

The Okmulgee County Wellness Coalition's Mental Health & Substance Abuse Committee is happy to announce the topic for the Coalition's Red Ribbon Week 2013 Essay Contest.

This year's essay topic will be, "Why I choose to be tobacco free."

Students in the 6th, 7th, and 8th grades are encouraged to submit their essay for a chance to win a prize and have their picture in the local newspapers with our very own "Ciggy Buttz". Homeschooler's welcome!

The essay should not exceed 500 words, and be at least one page in length. Winners will be announced during Red Ribbon Week (October 23-31).

Essays may be submitted by fax, mail, or e-mail.
