

MacTown Skate Fest at Connally Park

The Pittsburg County Local Service Coalition is sponsoring the MacTown Skate Fest will be held today from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Connally Park located at Electric and Strong.

“This is our fifth year and we expect a great turnout,” said Stacy Williams assistant chair for the coalition.

Williams said that skateboarding is just part of the events. “The McAlester Ammunition Plant is bringing out a rock wall and the Boys and Girls Club is will have a video game tent,” said Williams.

She said free hot dogs and water will be available from 12-1 p.m.

Williams said the entry fee is $5 and winners will receive gift certificates will be awarded for Westside Skateboard Shop in Ada. “Westside will be there with a booth selling skateboards and other items,” Williams said.

She said the Choctaw Nation and The Oaks will also have booths at the event.

She said the age divisions are ages 8-11 12-15 and 16-18 and there will be a Beat Box, Free Skate and a graffiti competitions.
