

SYC attends Youth to Youth Camp

Sallisaw Youth Coalition (SYC) arrived on July 9 at Rogers College, Claremore, to attend Youth to Youth Camp. The camp is paid for by Sallisaw NOW, Cherokee Nation and groups from Ohio College provide leadership.

The conference agenda included family groups, workshops from professionals and high school peers, Youth Action Groups, original teambuilding challenges and several other activities.

Participants will hear from top youth speakers, and hang out with friends and meet youth from all over America.

The camp will prepare the participants to work in communities to help prevent drug and alcohol misuse and be stronger leaders.

Submitted Photo by Sharon Day

Attending the Youth to Youth Camp, in no particular order, Auri Sparks, Ceira Ackerman, Deandra Denley, Claire Burnsed, Nirali Jayswal, Britty Gist, Adyson Holt and Alex Mcmillion. Not pictured Brandon Grant and Josh Simonds, Youth staff members.