

OKLAHOMA

State Department of Health

Update on Window Visitation

July 24, 2020

Window Visits

Window visits, where there is complete glass (or comparable medium) separation between the resident and visitor, and the visitor does not enter the building or interact with staff, fall outside of the scope of the guidance for visitation. These visits are not prohibited.