Long Term Care Rule and Law Changes for 2002

Oklahoma rules and laws are undergoing several changes in 2002 affecting long-term care service providers. Providers may obtain those changes in three formats:

1. Detail of changes. Electronic copies of the documents referenced in the listing below show detailed changes. Those are available through the Oklahoma State Department of Health Internet site at www.health.state.ok.us/program/prc/changes2002.html
2. Complete copies with changes incorporated. Updated copies of Oklahoma Long Term Care laws and rules are available by Internet at <http://www.health.state.ok.us/program/ltc/index.html>. Or, paper copies of the complete updated rules and laws may be obtained by returning the enclosed invoice with required copy fees.
3. Inserts. Rule booklets printed on 3-hole paper were mailed to licensed long term care providers in November 2001. The Department will mail inserts needed to update those booklets to providers at no charge by November 2002.

If you have questions, please call (405) 271-6868 and ask for information on "Long Term Care Rule and Law Changes for 2002."
