V. Critical Access Hospitals. The Health Care Financing Administration has authorized the Oklahoma State Department of Health to designate and survey rural nonprofit hospitals as Critical Access Hospitals.

As of January 23, 2000, the State Health Department had surveyed and certified seven rural hospitals as critical access hospitals. The seven hospitals are: Prague Municipal Hospital, Prague; Jane Phillips Nowata Health Center, Nowata; Atoka Memorial Hospital, Atoka; Watonga Municipal Hospital, Watonga; Mercy Health-Love County, Marietta; Roger Mills Memorial Hospital, Cheyenne; and Johnston Memorial Hospital, Tishomingo.

As of January 23, 2000, two other hospitals were awaiting surveys for critical access hospital certification. Those two are Cimarron Memorial Hospital, Boise City.

A not-for-profit hospital with no more than 15 acute care beds that is located in a rural county and at least 35 miles from the nearest hospital may be certified as a critical access hospital. The hospital may have up to 10 additional swing beds, and the distance to the nearest hospital may be as low as 15 miles if the drive is by secondary roads. The critical access hospital can keep each patient no more than 96 hours. The critical access hospital may cut services and staffing to the point of closing the facility temporarily when no inpatients are present. An on-call emergency service must be provided. Critical access hospitals qualify for cost-based reimbursement, instead of payments based on Diagnosis Related Groupings (DRGs).
