

YAS New Member Letter of Agreement

As a Youth Advisory Subcommittee member you can expect to:

- Gain awareness of how you can create equitable change in your community
- Actively engage with diverse populations
- Be advocates, activists, and community leaders for sexual violence prevention

As a part of this subcommittee you commit to:

- Attend all meetings, (in person, by phone or by video conference) unless exceptions/accommodations have been discussed with the YAS Council
- Play a leadership role in the planning and implementation of the three objectives of YAS
- Provide feedback on YAS efficacy and goals at the end of every meeting through evaluation and be willing to partake in phone calls to verbally express feedback
- Serve as a representative of the overarching Oklahoma Prevention Leadership Committee (OPLC) as a YAS member to the community

The OPLC YAS is at-will and members may be dismissed at the YAS Council's discretion due to failure to meet responsibilities.

By signing below, you affirm that you have read the above expectations and guidelines, and agree to work toward achieving these expectations and responsibilities for the duration of your participation in the Youth Advisory Subcommittee. You also grant the Oklahoma State Department of Health (OSDH) full permission to use photographs, portraits, films and video of you and quotations made by you in Youth Advisory Subcommittee materials, and in accounts of volunteering by or about the Youth Advisory Subcommittee and the goals it carries out.
