

Influenza-Associated Hospitalizations by Week of Positive Influenza Test, Oklahoma, Comparison of the 2015-2016*, 2016-2017†, and 2017-2018‡ Seasons

Week ending July 3, 2018

¹These units correspond to the number of weeks in a year and allow for comparison between multiple seasons.

*Total number of hospitalizations for the 2015-2016 season was 565. There was almost an equal proportion of influenza A 2009 H1N1, influenza H3, and influenza B.

†Total number of hospitalizations for the 2016-2017 season was 2,426. The season was predominantly influenza A H3N2 with a second wave of influenza B.

‡Total number of hospitalizations for the 2017-2018 season is 4,823.