

Building Blue Ribbon Trees

National Child Abuse Prevention Month
April - 2011

 Only a sampling of some of the ribbon-ed trees in our state.*

Okfuskee County Health Department, Okemah, OK

Tree represents county's cases of abuse investigated, confirmed and the number of deaths due to abuse or neglect in Oklahoma in 2007

Pottawatomie County Health Department, Shawnee, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

McClain County Health Department, Blanchard, OK
Ribbons are in general support of all children

Gordon Cooper Technology Center, Shawnee, OK
Ribbons are in general support of all children

Oklahoma City-County Health Department, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons represent commitment to promoting and protecting healthy families and preventing child abuse

The Sunbeam Home, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons represent foster children

Transition House, Inc., Norman, OK
Ribbons represent recovery from child abuse

Town of Union City, Union City, OK
Ribbons represent the 20 babies born each year in Union City

McCurtain Memorial Hospital, Idabel, OK
Ribbons are in general support of all children

Tecumseh Public Library, Tecumseh, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

Archdiocese, Oklahoma City, OK

Child Development Center – Canadian Co. Tech Center, El Reno, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

Village United Methodist Church, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

1 12:41AM

Family Support & Prevention Service, OSDH, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

Emerson Alternative School, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons represent the children loved by the students

Parent-Child Center of Tulsa, Tulsa, OK
Ribbons represent cherished children

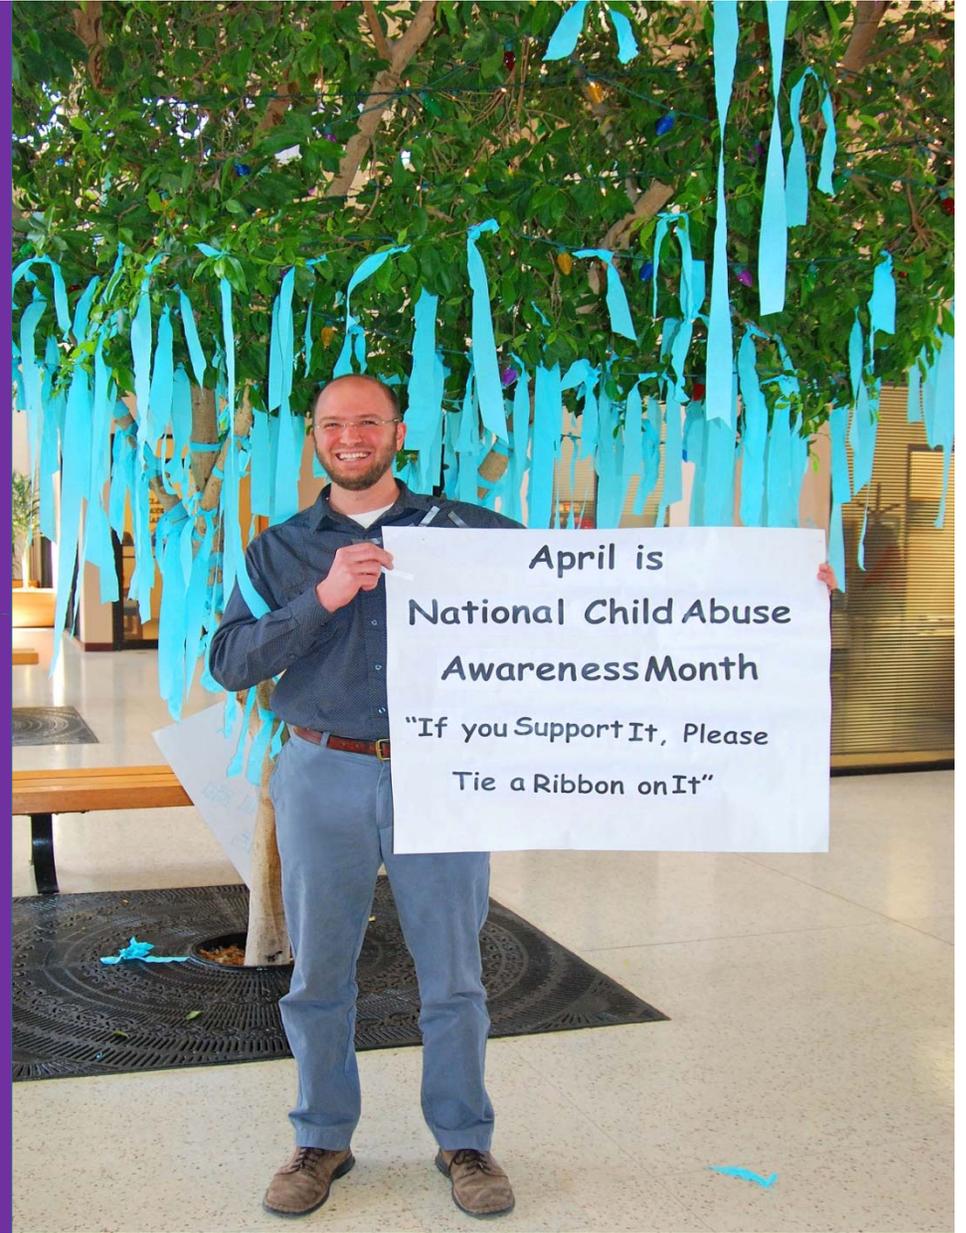

Sallisaw Cookson Hills Head Start, Sallisaw, OK
Ribbons represent children in Head Start Program

Family Advocacy Program, Tinker Air Force Base, OK
Ribbons represent general awareness and support of all children

Oklahoma Health Care Authority, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons represent the children served by the Oklahoma Health Care Authority

Oklahoma Health Care Authority, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons represent the children served by the Oklahoma Health Care Authority

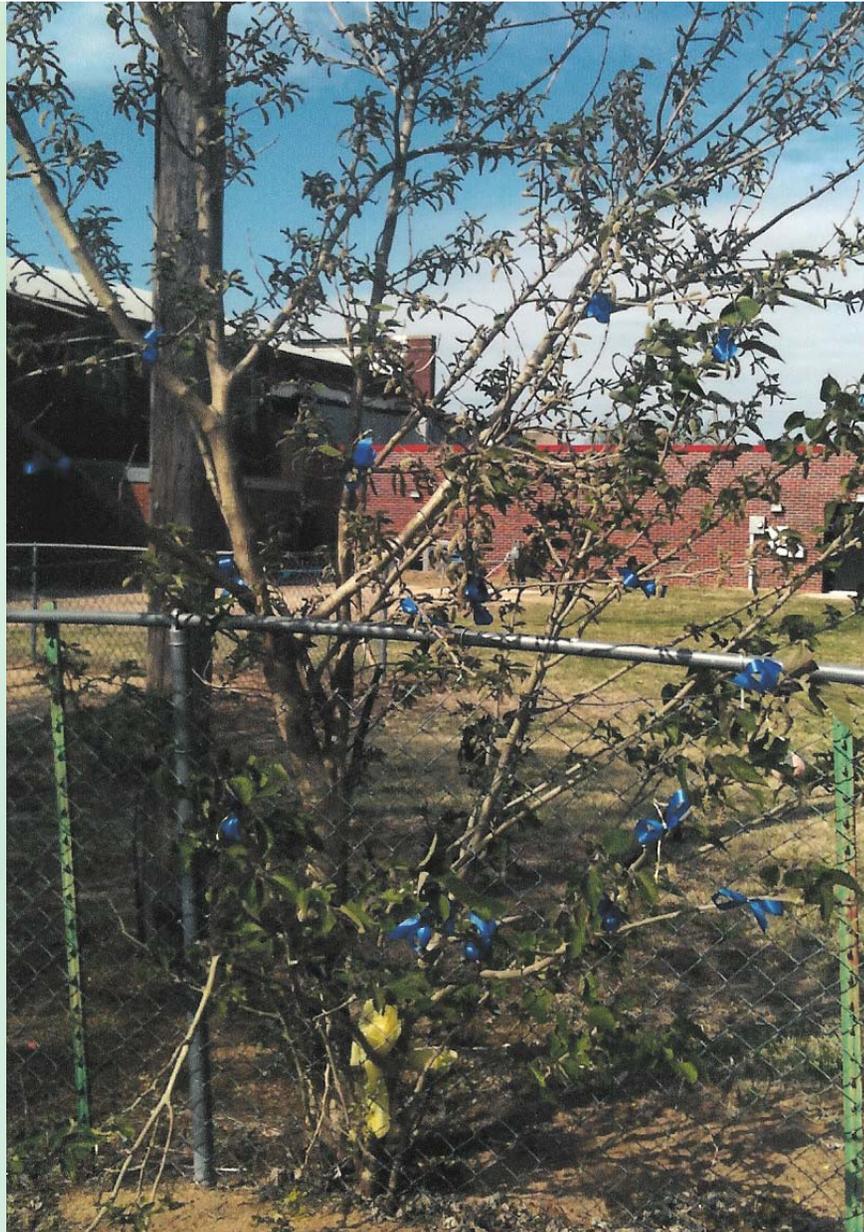

My Small Wonders, Inc. Child Care & Development Center, Edmond, OK
Ribbons are in general support of children and advocacy

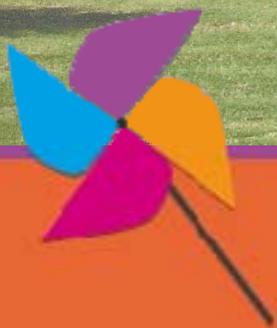

First Assembly of God Church, McLoud, OK
Ribbons represent number of confirmed cases of abuse and neglect

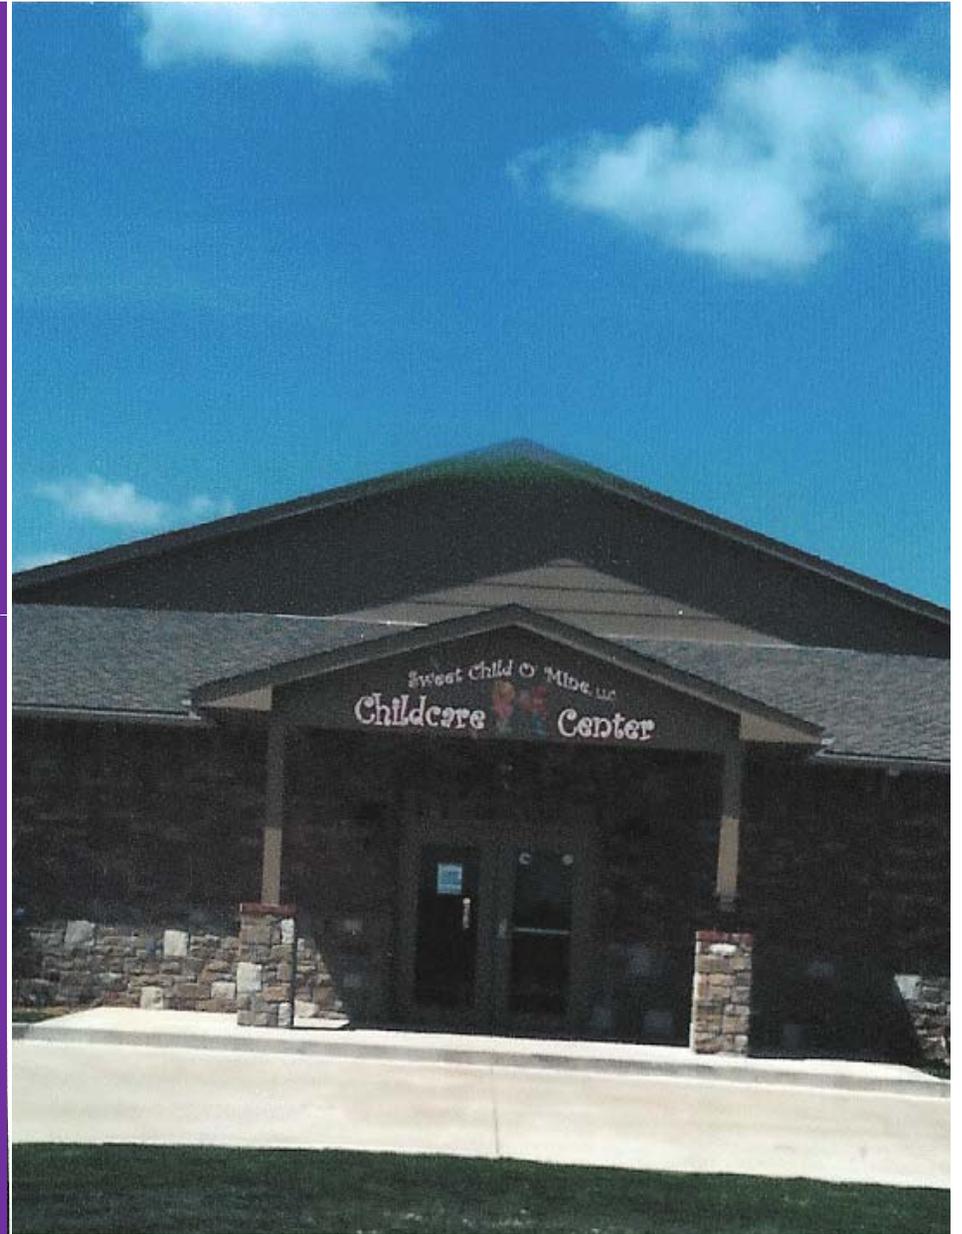

Pottawatomie 4-H Sewing Club, Earlsboro, OK
Ribbons represent 4-H reaching out to youth

Angel's Day Care
Ribbons are in support of all children

Pioneer Woman Museum Advisory Board, Ponca City, OK
Ribbons are in general support of all children

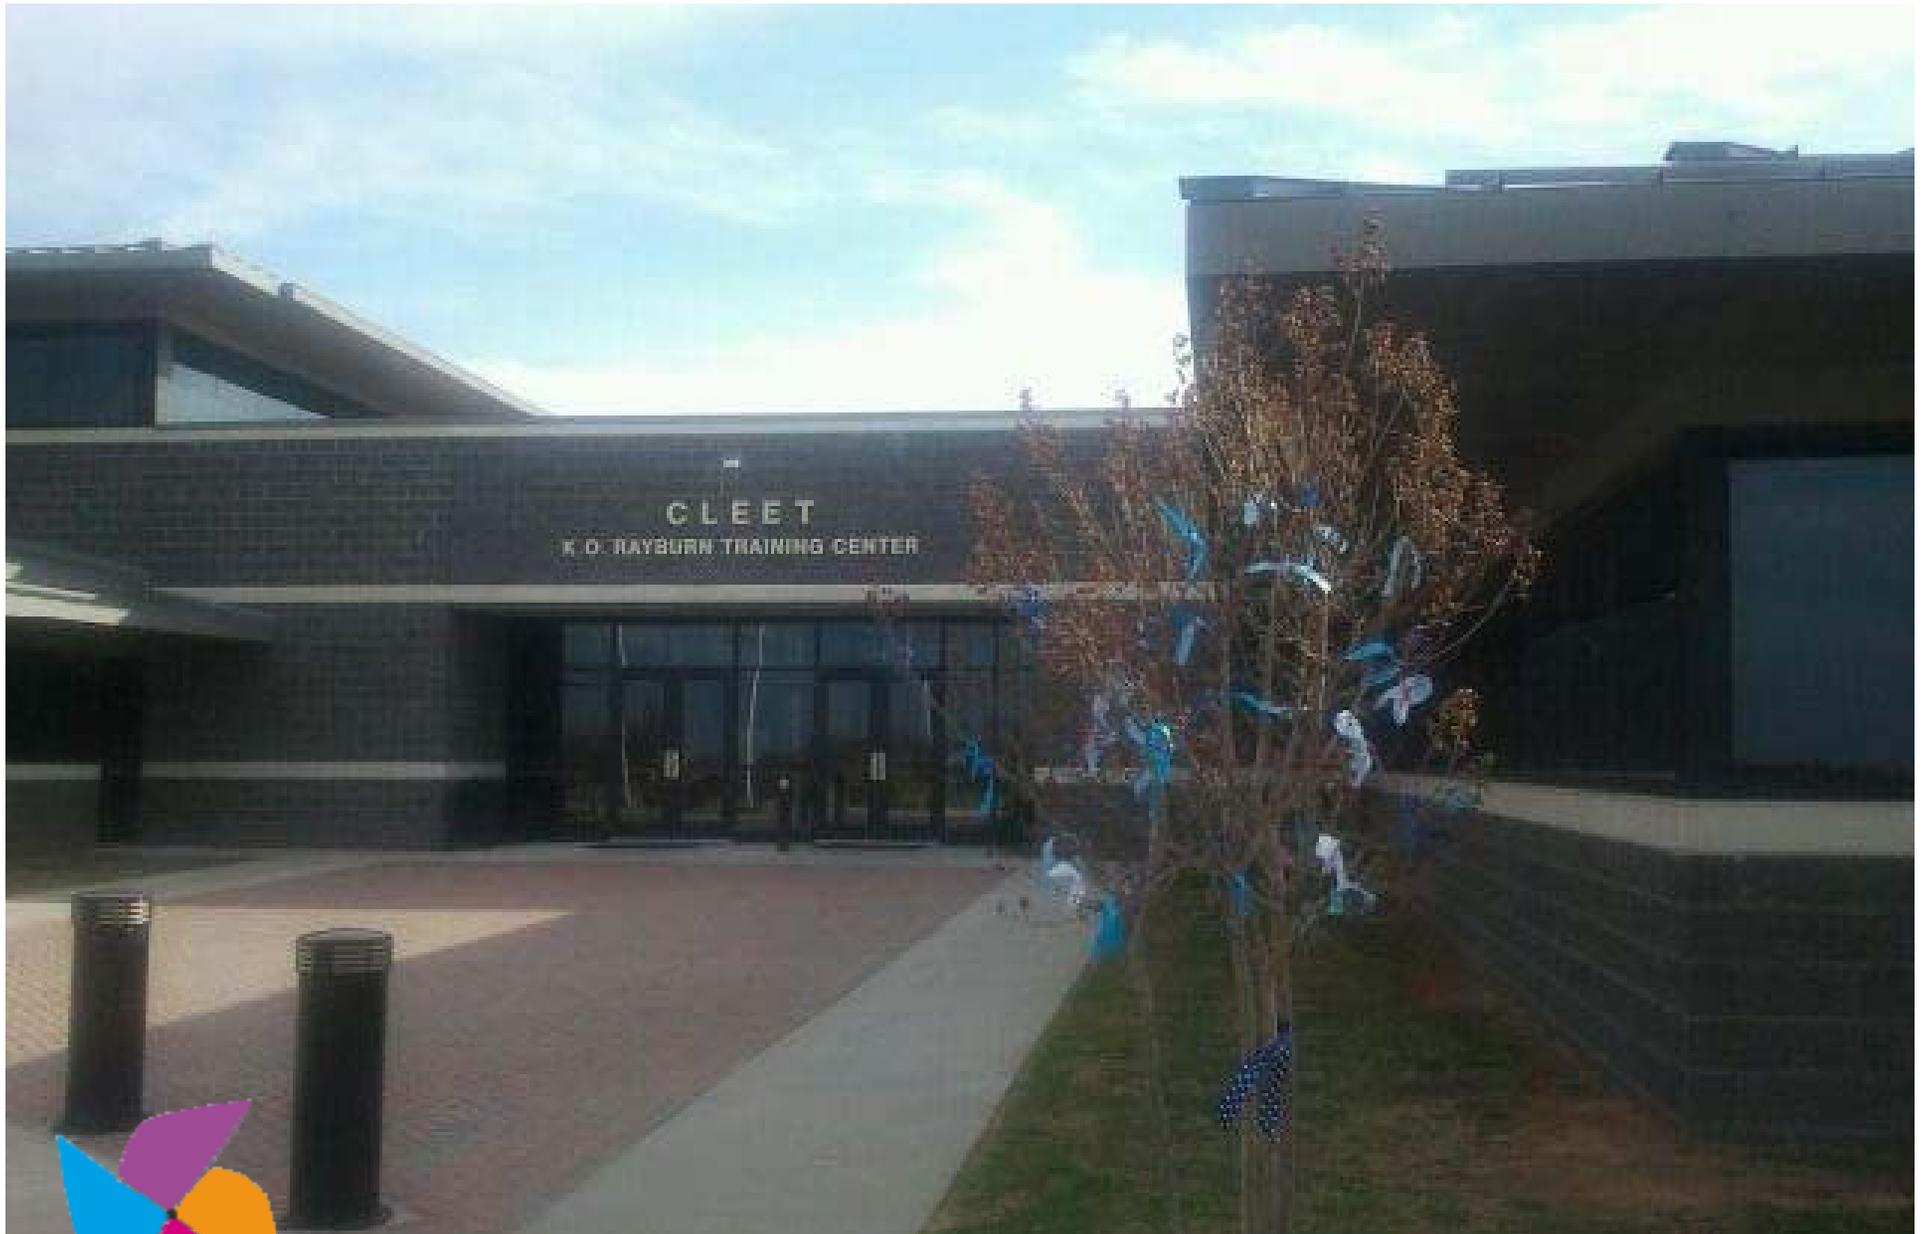

Sweet Child of Mine, Kingfisher, OK
Ribbons are in general support of all children

Hennessey Head Start, Hennessey, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

Pottawatomie County Health Dept., Shawnee, OK
Ribbons represent each confirmed abuse/neglect case in 2009

Council on Law Enforcement Education & Training (CLEET), Ada, OK
Each ribbon is unique, like every child in Oklahoma

COORDINATOR-DREA DAVIS PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICER

Dibble High School FCCLA, Dibble, OK
Ribbons represent all students in the Dibble school system

University of Central Oklahoma Early Childhood Assoc., Edmond, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

East Central University, Social Work Program, Ada, OK
Ribbons represent the ECU campus coming together to support all children

Oklahoma City-County Health Dept., Children First Program, OKC, OK
Ribbons represent the program's low infant mortality rate

Oklahoma CASA Assoc., Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons represent 3,455 abused children with CASA volunteers in 2010

Millwood Arts Academy & OCCHD School Health Program, OKC, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

Center for Children & Families, Inc., Norman, OK
Ribbons represent the number of adoptions by foster parents in Trauma Focused
Services since 2007

Center for Children & Families, Inc., Norman, OK
Ribbons represent the number of years CCFI has been improving lives in Cleveland Co.

Camelot of Oklahoma, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons represent the number of children at Camelot

 April is National Child Abuse Awareness Month

 7,248
children confirmed to be victims of abuse/neglect in 2010. Each ribbon on this tree represents one of those children.

Please take one of these blue ribbons and wear it throughout the month of April to raise awareness.

The royal blue ribbon is the international sign for child abuse and serves as a constant reminder that all of us have a responsibility in helping to protect children.

OKDHS Children & Family Services Division, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons represent the number of confirmed victims of abuse and neglect in Okla.

OKDHS Children & Family Services Division, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

Kady Groh, Mustang, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

Kelly Currier, Wetumka, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

Spencer Elementary School, Spencer, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

NSO West WIC, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

NSO West WIC, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

Catholic Charities of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons represent the number of children in our church

Pleasant Hill Elementary, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

B.C. Clark Jewelers, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

McLoud High School Key Club & NHS, McLoud, OK
Ribbons represent 199 proven cases of child abuse & 26 child deaths

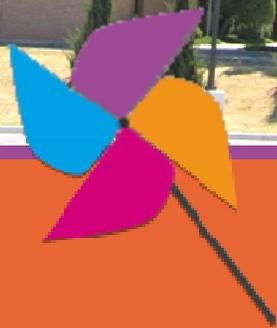

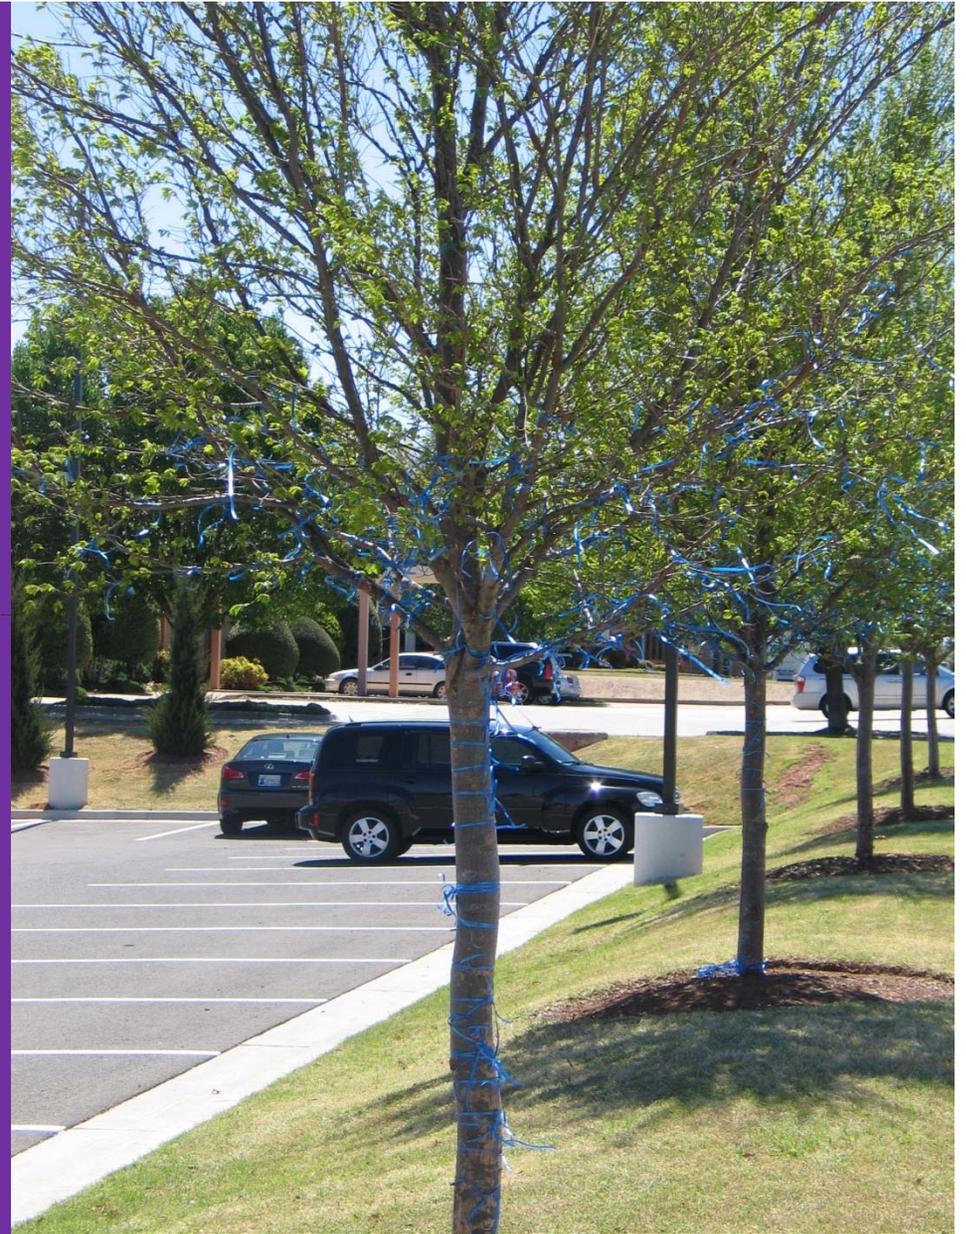

Robin Hill Public School, Norman, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children in Cleveland County

Armstrong Head Start, Luther, OK
Ribbons represent children enrolled in Armstrong Head Start Program

OKDHS Garfield County, Enid, OK
Ribbons represent the prevention of child abuse

Infant Crisis Services, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

The Delta Cafe, Shawnee, OK

Ribbons represent confirmed child abuse and neglect cases in Pottawatomie County last year

World of Fun Child Care, Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

OKDHS Foster Care Unit Blue Ribbon Project, Kay County
Ribbons are in support of all children

Center on Child Abuse and Neglect Bulletin Board
Oklahoma City, OK

Bryan County Health Dept., Durant, OK

Ribbons represent number of confirmed case of child abuse and neglect in Bryan County.

McCurtain Memorial Hospital, Durant, OK
Ribbons are in support of all children

Oklahoma City-County Health Dept., Oklahoma City, OK
Ribbons represent the commitment to promote and protect healthy families and prevent child abuse

