

December 15, 2014 • 10 am – 4:30 pm

Living Longer Better

The Governor's
Healthy Aging
Summit

Join us for a conversation about health in Oklahoma.

The Reed Conference Center • 5800 Will Rogers Road • Midwest City, OK

Please register in advance by calling 405-325-1022

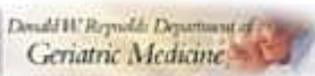

Onsite registration starts at 9 a.m.

Learn and discuss topics such as:

- National, Tribal and Local Initiatives to Promote Healthy Aging
- Partnerships to Improve the Quality of Care and Life in Long-Term Care Facilities
- The Health Status of Older Adults in Oklahoma
- Strategies for Living Longer Better, 2015-2019

Speakers will include:

- Governor Mary Fallin
- Dr. Terry Cline, Commissioner of Health and Secretary of Health and Human Services
- Roger Landry, MD, MPH, President, Masterpiece Living, author of "Live Long, Die Short"
- Laurence Z. Rubenstein, MD, Professor and Chairman of the Donald W. Reynolds Dept. of Geriatric Medicine
- Betty Wharton, Director, Choctaw Nation Healthy Aging
- Lance Robertson, Aging Services Director, DHS
- Susan Purcell, TMF Health Innovation Network
- The Honorable Ken Smith, Mayor, City of Yukon
- The Rev. Ray Douglas, Senior Pastor, Greater Mount Olive Baptist Church, Oklahoma City
- Joanne Alderman, APRN-CNS, President-Elect, National Gerontological Nursing Association

Oklahoma State Department of Health
Creating a State of Health

Aging
Services

OKLAHOMA HEALTHY AGING INITIATIVE

OHAI is supported by a grant from the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation