Health officials hold Lawton listening session

ROBERT FOX

Members of the Oklahoma State Board of Health visited the Southwest Oklahoma Fit Kids Coalition and other interested groups Tuesday afternoon to discuss the Oklahoma Health Improvement Plan (OHIP).

Barry Smith, president of the State Board of Health, said this was the third listening session to help them generate a plan. There will be sessions in Tulsa, Oklahoma City and Guymon this year and six more communities next year. The listening sessions are a large part of the health improvement plan, which will target obesity, children's health and tobacco use.
