

Published October 16, 2008 02:00 pm

Blanchard Fun Day is Saturday

The Blanchard Community Coalition, A Turning Point Partnership, the McClain County Health Department and NAIC, a United Way Agency is holding a Family Fun Day for all families Saturday from 10 am-1 pm. The Fun Day will be located at 400 S.W. 7th Street at the Blanchard Lion's park. Everyone should enter the park from the south side entrance.

There will be an opportunity for the community to receive free bike helmets, free arts & crafts for kids, and free car seats! There will also be inflatables for all, food sampling from all the new restaurants around town, and free dental screenings.

For information or to reserve a booth please contact Amanda James at (405) 366-3407.