

Group sets full slate of local health and cleanup events

Thursday, 12 April 2007

By HEATHER AVEY, Staff Writer

Texas County Turning Point (TCTP) has a full slate of activities planned for the next few months.

- Community-wide cleanup has been scheduled for Friday, April 20.
- The Memorial Hospital of Texas County Annual Health Fair will be Saturday, April 28, from 6 a.m. to noon at the Texas County Activity Center.
- Girl Power Day has been pushed back from April 14 to a possible date of June 15.
- Walk This Weigh registration deadline is still April 20 with a $5 registration fee. All participants must pay the $5 registration fee even if they fail to pre-register. Those who do not pre-register can sign up on May 1, the day of the kick-off. The TCTP committee will order T-shirts for those who have pre-registered. "Teams don't have to walk together, you just keep your minutes together as team," said Jolena Graves, health educator. Registration forms are available at the Next Step Network located at 1004 NE Highway 54 Walk this Weigh Texas County is being sponsored by Wilson Welding, Memorial Hospital of Texas County, Tri-County Electric and EOG.
- The Children's Health Fair is set for July 26th.

For more information, contact Jada Dickerson at (580) 338-7259 or Kay Allen at (580) 338-8544.