---

Course Overview:

This course provides participants with an understanding of and ability to navigate through the difficult aspects of dealing with campus emergencies involving natural or manmade events including acts of violence. The course consists of small problem-based integrated group activities that require a coordinated integrated approach to solve. Through tabletop scenarios, course participants observe a developing incident and respond in a manner consistent with currently established campus and jurisdictional emergency operation procedures.

This course is CLEET Accredited.

Prerequisites:

Participants should be familiar with their respective roles and responsibilities with regard to emergency preparedness planning, the response to campus emergencies and related post incident activities and consequences.

Participant Audience:

This course is designed for executive campus leaders, faculty governance, student governance, campus public safety departments, campus health/medical and mental health services, campus public affairs, local law enforcement and public safety agencies and jurisdictional public information officers at community colleges, colleges and universities.
