

Delores Runnels has a heart and passion for community outreach as well as in the public school system. She has worked in the Putnam City School District for over 6 years and since that time has started a Non-Profit Organization called "Career Daze, connecting the classroom with the real world." Delores holds an Associate's Degree in Paralegal Studies and has over 15 years' experience in the legal field. She has served on the Board of Directors for the Oklahoma Children's Theatre for several years. Delores earned a Masters in Theology from Christian Life School of Theology, located in Columbus, GA. Delores currently serves as Senior Pastor along with her husband Keith, at The Father's House Church located in Edmond.