

Deneka Turney Cain

Deneka Turney Cain is the Advocate General for the Oklahoma Department of Mental Health and Substance Abuse Services. Ms. Cain graduated from the University of Oklahoma College of Law in 2000. During her tenure at the ODMHSAS, Ms. Cain has drafted multiple legislative bills amending Oklahoma mental health law and authored the Children's Emergency Detention Manual. She currently represents the Department on various legislative work groups dealing with confidentiality and children. Additionally, she has contributed to the Department's Emergency Detention and Confidentiality manuals. As Advocate General, Ms. Cain ensures that consumers' rights are protected by providing training to various groups, such as Oklahoma law enforcement officers and behavioral health professionals regarding Oklahoma mental health law, confidentiality, and ethics from a consumer-centered perspective.
