COSTELLO VISITS SEMINOLE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Oklahoma City – Oklahoma Department of Labor Commissioner Mark Costello makes his second trip to Seminole. He has been traveling throughout Oklahoma meeting with business leaders, educating businesses on programs the Labor Department has available and speaking about reforms needed in Oklahoma.

Commissioner Costello is scheduled to speak to the Seminole Chamber of Commerce at noon on Wednesday, February 29 at Seminole State College 2701 Boren Boulevard. He extends a warm welcome to anyone who is in the area.

Commissioner Costello stated, “I look forward to visiting Seminole again and I look forward to speaking with business owners on what burdens their business at the state level.”
