Learning Consortium Update
Christina Foss, Project Director, said Oklahoma is part of NCSL National Learning Consortium on Licensing Reform. Mrs. Foss said there are initiatives going on in other states. Mrs. Foss provided updates on some of these initiatives including reporting that several states have passed the Freedom to Work Act, Nevada passed a law easing the occupational licensing process for Green Card holders and refugees, Texas passed a law allowing an individual to retain an occupational license even if the individual defaults on student loans, and the U.S. Army providing for reimbursement of occupational licensure fees for Military spouses.

Agenda Item 7:
License Review
Commissioner Osborn said the Commission will be reviewing nineteen (19) licenses under three (3) entities, the Oklahoma State Department of Health (OSDH), Alcoholic Beverage Laws Enforcement (ABLE), and the Oklahoma Department of Agriculture, Food and Forestry (ODA).

Ashley Scott and Vicki Kirtley, OSDH staff, were present to represent the OSDH. Staff discussed fifteen (15) occupational licenses issued by the agency. Staff discussed skills, experience and education requirements for each license, required fees, types of work performed by licensees, and answered questions from the Commission.

Steven Barker, General Counsel for the ABLE Commission, was present to represent ABLE. Mr. Barker discussed three (3) occupational licenses issued by the agency. Mr. Barker discussed skills, experience and education requirements for each license, required fees, types of work performed by licensees, and answered questions from the Commission.

At 10:34 a.m., ODA staff had not yet arrived for the meeting. Commissioner Osborn said we would take a fifteen-minute break. The meeting resumed at 10:58 a.m.

JanLee Rowlett, Legislative Liaison for ODA and Kenny Naylor, ABLE Director of Community Protection Services, were present to represent the ODA. Staff discussed one license issued by the ODA. Staff discussed the skills, experience and education requirements for Pesticide Applicator: Commercial, Noncommercial, Consultant and Technician. Staff discussed type of work performed, licensing fees and answered questions from the Commission.

Agenda Item 8:
Next Steps
Commissioner Osborn said the next meeting is scheduled for Monday, August 5 at 9:00 a.m. at the ODOL, for discussion over the next set of licenses. Commissioner Osborn said the Commission would receive meeting packets at least two (2) weeks in advance.

Representative Cyndi Munson said there is a National Conference for State Legislators scheduled August 5 and some Commission members may be unable to attend the Commission meeting. Commissioner Osborn said we would send out an early RSVP to determine if the meeting date needs to be changed.
Senator Adam Pugh said he oversees ABLE from the budget perspective. Senator Pugh said he will request the numbers as far as revenue received from individual license and will share that information when it is received.

Agenda Item 9:
Adjournment
Commissioner Osborn adjourned the meeting at 11:09 a.m.
