The Mark Costello

Entrepreneurial Excellence in Oklahoma

The Mark Costello Entrepreneurial Excellence in Oklahoma Award is to honor those Oklahoma based entrepreneurs who have created profitable employment for their fellow Oklahomans and fostered a positive business atmosphere.

The recognition process includes a letter announcing the selection sent to the recipient business, area legislators, the nominator, and the media. The Department of Labor will post the name of the recipient business and a short company biography on its web site.

The Commissioner will present the award at a designated time and location. Area dignitaries, media and the nominator will be invited to attend the award presentation.

Selection criteria includes: Oklahoma originated business, number of employees, years in existence, and their individual story.

Feel free to nominate more than one entrepreneur for recognition.
