

Welcome to the Oklahoma Department of Labor

Welcome to the Oklahoma Department of Labor. We are responsible for the administration and enforcement of the state's minimum wage law we enforce the state's child labor laws oversee the states workers compensation insurance compliance program investigate and mediate unpaid wage disputes. The Labor Department has jurisdiction for welded steam lines boiler and pressure vessels elevators amusement and water rides. We are responsible for the certification of welders and weld testing laboratories as well as the regulation and certification of asbestos workers. We are the primary enforcement agency of occupational safety and health for public employees. We offer a Safety Pays OSHA Consultation service to Oklahoma's private sector businesses.