Educator Assessments

I. EDUCATOR ASSESSMENTS POLICY STATEMENT

It is the policy of the Office of Educational Quality and Accountability (OEQA) and its divisions to fully comply with all facets of the Oklahoma Teacher Preparation Act (70 O.S. § 6-187) and Oklahoma Administrative Code 218:10-7-1(a).

II. PROCEDURES

In addition to the Oklahoma General Knowledge Test (OGET), the ACT® and SAT® are approved assessments of general knowledge. The passing score for the ACT® shall be a composite score of 22 with the writing section included. The passing score for the SAT® shall be a total score of 1120 including the following scores on the essay section: five (5) on Reading, four (4) on Analysis, and five (5) on Writing.

In addition to the Oklahoma Professional Teacher Exam (OPTE), the PPAT® is an approved performance assessment measuring professional knowledge and skills. Through August 31st, 2020, the passing score for the PPAT® shall be 38. Beginning September 1st, 2020 the passing score for the PPAT® shall be 40.
