Oklahoma Employment and Training Issuance #8-2000

TO: WIA Grant Recipients

FROM: Eddie Foreman, Director

DATE: April 28, 2000

SUBJECT: To Transmit Oklahoma's State Policy on the Redemption of Certificates of Continuing Eligibility

MESSAGE: Under Title III of the JTPA program, SDAs were allowed to issue Certificates of Continuing Eligibility to Dislocated Workers that established their eligibility and allowed postponement of training for up to 104 weeks. However, the transition from JTPA to WIA has required the State to establish a new policy concerning the redemption of Certificates of Continuing Eligibility. Therefore the State is imposing the following policy effective May 1, 2000.

Individuals who have not redeemed their Certificate of Continuing Eligibility or individuals who have redeemed their Certificate of Continuing Eligibility and received objective assessment only — must meet the eligibility criteria of WIA 134(d)(4), 20 CFR 663.310 and follow the procedures established by their local Workforce Investment Area Board in order to receive training under the new act.

ACTION: Please distribute this issuance to appropriate staff and include it as part of your permanent records.

INQUIRIES: Questions and comments may be directed to your Planning Coordinator or Mike Clark at 405/557-539.
