Our Oct 18th, 2016 meeting will feature Christina F. Cupp, Associate at Crowe & Dunlevy who will present:

‘When Change Brings Challenge—Staying on Top of Oklahoma Workers Comp’

In this advanced presentation on Oklahoma’s workers’ compensation system, Christina Cupp will provide a case law update for the audience on decisions interpreting Oklahoma’s Administrative Workers’ Compensation Act as well as provide information about the many challenges still pending. Listeners will learn how to analyze on-the-job injuries based on these new decisions and challenges and the impact each has on employers and employees.

Christina Cupp is an associate in the firm’s Labor & Employment and Bankruptcy & Creditor’s Rights Practice Groups. Her practice focuses on the areas of bankruptcy litigation and creditor’s rights, in addition to employment law.

As a bankruptcy attorney, Cupp has experience handling cases that involve all of the typical parties in Chapter 11 bankruptcies including creditors, committees, trustees and debtors in possession, as well as business Chapter 7 cases and bankruptcy litigation.

In her labor and employment practice, Cupp represents employers in all aspects of employment litigation. Cases include personal injury defense and workers’ compensation defense, as well as counseling clients in matters with current and former employees involving: The Civil Rights Act; The Americans with Disabilities Act; The Family Medical Leave Act; The Oklahoma Employment Security Commission; The Age Discrimination in Employment Act; Retaliatory and wrongful discharge.

Prior to joining Crowe & Dunlevy, Cupp gained experience as a defense attorney where she provided extensive claims and exposure analysis to insurance adjusters, employers and risk managers. She also composed and prepared contractual documents for nonprofit organizations and analyzed various tax issues.

Cupp is a member of the American Bar Association, Oklahoma Bar Association and Tulsa Bar Association. Active in her community, Cupp serves as a mentor to law students at the University of Tulsa College of Law and speaks annually at the Women’s Law Caucus to encourage more women to enter the legal profession. She is also involved with Crowe & Dunlevy’s Minority Scholars Program committee and volunteers at Legal Aid Services of Oklahoma. In addition, Cupp frequently presents regarding employment law, workers’ compensation and risk management related issues at association seminars throughout Oklahoma, and authors articles and Q&As for The Oklahoman.
