

SPRING JOB FAIR MARCH 19, 2010

OKLAHOMA CITY - In these very difficult economic times, and as a public service to the citizens of Central Oklahoma, the Oklahoma Employment Security Commission (OESC), in partnership with Workforce Oklahoma, and co-sponsored by the International Association of Workforce Professionals (IAWP), has a Spring Job Fair scheduled for Friday, March 19th, 2010 at the Bricktown Coca Cola Event Center, 425 E. California, Oklahoma City, OK; between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.

This is the 27th Job Fair sponsored by OESC and Workforce Oklahoma, and represents one of the largest Job Fairs held in Oklahoma each year; with many companies and organizations participating. Job Seekers will find employers from many different sectors of business, private industry, and government at the Spring Job Fair. Positions will range from Executive, Administrative, Professional, Technical, Service, and Sales; plus others.

A number of the companies participating will provide applications on the spot for job seekers, as well as information regarding specific job openings; a few other companies will offer on-line opportunities for job search. Applicants are encouraged to bring resumes with them, and be properly attired. The Job Fair is free for job seekers. Free parking is also available.

Any company or organization interested in participating should contact either Ms. Donna Wilkins (405) 670-9100, or Mr. Larry Musslewhite (405) 470-3200, as soon as possible. Interested employers should not delay, as available slots for booths will be filled.

Auxiliary aids and services for individuals with disabilities are available upon request, including telecommunications devices for the Deaf.
