Summary of Presentation:

“My employee filed an unemployment claim, now what?” Did you get that little notice in the mail and need to know what is required next? This presentation will help you through the unemployment claims process including Oklahoma’s Unemployment Laws, steps you can take to keep UI costs down, where Employer resources and information can be found, and ends with the very informative Q&A session.

Presenter:

Ron Smith is a 13 year employee of the Unemployment Insurance Division and has worked as claims representative helping people through the unemployment process and assisting employers, claims adjudicator, employee trainer for the UI Service Center, and Benefits Data Validator. Ron conducts employer presentations, statewide UI benefits training and implements new system development.
