FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

36th OESC Semi-annual Fall Job Fair Set for October 17 in Oklahoma City

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK (October 16, 2014) – The Oklahoma Employment Security Commission (OESC) invites the public to attend its 36th Semi-annual Fall Job Fair from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. on Friday, October 17, 2014, at the Oklahoma State Fair Park in the Oklahoma Expo Hall – North, 3001 General Pershing Blvd. in Oklahoma City. The event, one of central Oklahoma's premier job fairs, will feature more than 90 employers representing hundreds of employment opportunities in a wide variety of industries. Over 1,300 job seekers attended the OESC job fair held this past spring.

The 36th OESC Semi-annual Fall Job Fair is open to the public. Job seekers are asked to dress professionally, bring copies of their resume and be prepared to meet face-to-face with company recruiters. Computers with online access are provided so attendees can submit electronic applications and receive resume assistance. Parking for the event is free.

For more information about the 36th OESC Semi-annual Job Fair, please contact the Oklahoma City Eastside Workforce Center at (405) 713-1890 or the Oklahoma City Brookwood South Workforce Center at (405) 234-5000.

About OESC – The Oklahoma Employment Security Commission is Oklahoma's state workforce agency. OESC provides unemployment compensation to support unemployed workers and their communities; matches jobs and workers to benefit local labor markets; prepares a skilled workforce to meet employers' needs; and gathers, analyzes and disseminates information about the labor force to improve local economic decisions.
