Administrator of Consumer Credit issues emergency cease and desist order against Oklahoma City credit repair company

Administrator of Consumer Credit, Scott Leshner, issued an emergency cease and desist order on Monday against Show and Prove Credit Repair of Oklahoma City. The order alleges that Show and Prove Credit Repair has engaged or offered to engage as a credit services organization in the State of Oklahoma without a license by advertising credit repair services on the Respondent's Internet website.

The order requires the company to cease and desist from engaging and/or offering to engage as a credit services organization, including via the Internet, pending a final resolution of the proceeding. The company has agreed to waive their right to a hearing and enter into a Consent Order with the Department.
