

Ky Chaffin Biography

Ky Chaffin is a commercial banker with Bank of Oklahoma based in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He is a native of Sapulpa where he lives today with his wife and four children. Ky graduated from the University of Oklahoma in 1995 with a degree from the Price College of Business.

After graduation, Ky began his career with Merrill Lynch as a participant in their two-year Professional Development Program, which included training in securities, corporate finance and capital markets. Following completion of the program, he continued work for the firm in Dallas until 1999.

Following his Merrill Lynch experience, Ky returned to Oklahoma and entered the commercial banking industry with Bank of America in Tulsa. He joined Bank of Oklahoma in 2003 and has remained with the firm since that time. Today, he is a Senior Vice President in BOK's Corporate Banking department, specializing in financing packages for large companies.

Ky has a life-long love of music and film. His involvement in the OK film industry began in 2008 through his involvement with Indion Entertainment Group and its principal Chad Burris, a former member of the OF&MO Advisory Commission. Indion provides financing and investment for independent feature films. Its credits in Oklahoma include Barking Water, The Killer Inside Me and Bringing Up Bobby. Through this work, Ky has become committed to supporting the entertainment industry in Oklahoma and all of the benefits it provides.

In addition to his support for the arts in Oklahoma, Ky is committed to causes benefitting children. He has served a three-year appointment on a Post-Adjudication Review Board, administered by the Oklahoma Commission on Children & Youth (OCCY). This board has the task of reviewing court cases involving children who have been the victim of abuse, neglect or abandonment. He has also served on the advisory committee for the Superintendent of the Sapulpa Public School District, chairing the committee charged with facilities planning.