

KATIE LOVASZ Biography

Katie Lovasz serves as the Development Assistant for the Oklahoma Film & Music Office. She began working for OF&MO in September of 2013. In that role, she edits and publishes the weekly newsletter, This Week in Film & Music, posts to social media platforms, tracks media postings and assists both the Film Coordinator and the Music & Marketing Coordinator.

Lovasz has a Bachelor of Arts in Film and Video Studies from the University of Oklahoma and recently graduated with an Associate in Applied Science in Graphic Communication from Oklahoma City Community College.

Upon graduating from OU in 2006, Lovasz worked as a news clip editor for the local Fox 25 station and as a film editor for Walker Productions in Oklahoma City and Scottsdale, Arizona. She has also been a professional photographer for the past four years.

During her time at OCCC, she interned for Heritage Hall in their graphic design department, [Artspace] at Untitled as the archivist and marketing specialist and Oklahoma Today Magazine, another division of the Oklahoma Tourism and Recreation department.

Lovasz continues to volunteer for the arts including the Oklahoma Visual Arts Coalition's 12x12 Annual Art Fundraiser.