

Slide 1: Shows the SCC Logo with graphic animation.

Slide 2: Shows black screen with the words appearing one sentence at a time in white font.

"We see..."

(pause)

"a community where all children are prepared for success in school and in life."

(pause and change)

"a community where individuals and families can meet life's basic needs."

(pause and change)

"a community where all people have access to health care, allowing them to live independent, productive lives."

(pause and change)

"The Oklahoma State Charitable Campaign at work..."

(pause and add below)

"one donor at a time."

Slide 3: Shows Patti Ream standing next to a tree in front of the Health Department and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"Patti Ream at the State Department of Health gives to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 4: Shows a child getting help from a volunteer with her art supplies and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...so foster children can start school with new clothes and school supplies."

Slide 5: Shows Shane and Davina Sealock standing in front of the Department of Veterans affairs and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"Shane and Davina Sealock at the Department of Veterans Affairs and CompSource Oklahoma give to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 6: Shows a little girl receiving breathing treatments from a nurse and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...so Alexis can have quality healthcare."

Slide 7: Shows Karen Jacobs standing in front of the Sequoyah Building and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"Karen Jacobs at the Department of Human Services gives to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 8: Shows a woman smiling while sitting in the dentist chair with her dentist standing next to her smiling and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...to see the new beautiful smile on Killeen's face."

Slide 9: Shows Shelly Bacon, Laura Oak and Leslie Nance standing in front of the Oklahoma Water Resources Board sign inside their building with streamers and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"Shelly Bacon, Laura Oak and Leslie Nance at the Water Resources Board give to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 10: Shows a woman and her four young girls standing in front of their apartment complex smiling and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...so Erin and her family can have a safe place to live."

Slide 11: Shows Kristin Drake and Jan Widmann standing outside next to the CompSource sign and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"Kristin Drake and Jan Widmann at CompSource Oklahoma give to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 12: Shows a young man smiling standing in front of a colorful quilt hanging from the wall and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...so Raphael can gain self-confidence."

Slide 13: Shows Oscar Jackson standing next to an OPM banner in the Jim Thorpe building and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"Secretary Oscar Jackson at the Office of Personnel Management gives to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 14: Shows a young handicapped girl in her wheel chair playing with a bouncy ball and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...so Briahna never knows her limitations."

Slide 15: Shows Sarah Iovan standing on the stairs in front of the Paragon building and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"Sarah Iovan at the Commissioners of the Land Office gives to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 16: Shows Dr. Jordan Tang in his lab with chalk in his hand after writing out formulas on the chalk board in the background and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...so Dr. Jordan Tang can continue to work to find a cure for numerous diseases."

Slide 17: Shows Trent Corken sitting at his desk at the Attorney General's Office and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"Trent Corken at the Attorney General's Office gives to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 18: Shows a young boy sitting in a chair about to go into surgery and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...so kids like Mitch don't ever have to lose the battle to cancer."

Slide 19: Shows Hank and Joannie Batty at the dinner table and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"Hank and Joanie Batty at the Office of Personnel Management and Department of Rehabilitation give to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 20: Shows a young boy and girl sitting at a table painting pictures and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...so Marek and Sam can be part of afterschool arts programs."

Slide 21: Shows Jenelle Turner-Reid in front of the OETA building and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"Jenelle Turner-Reid at OETA gives to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 22: Shows a young child and her grandmother with sacks of groceries outside a building and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...so families can have food and shelter after the devastating ice storms."

Slide 23: Shows a large group of the employees from the Office of the Governor in a room standing around the Governor's podium and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"The employees of the Governor's Office give to the State Charitable Campaign..."

Slide 24: Shows an older woman with a flowery hat on smiling and the text appears on the bottom of the screen.

"...so Dorothy can stay forever young."

Slide 25: Shows black screen with the words appearing one sentence at a time in white font.

"We see..."

(pause)

"a community that cares."

(pause and change)

"a community that builds partnerships."

(pause and change)

"a community that does meaningful work."

Slide 26: Shows black screen with the words appearing one sentence at a time in white font.

"When you contribute to the State Charitable Campaign..."

(pause)

"we see a community that thrives."

Slide 27: Shows the SCC Logo with graphic animation.

Slide 28: Shows black screen with the words appearing in white font.

"Thank you..."