Because someone asked, I looked at ages...

The 61-70 bracket for NHAs looks bigger than you might expect (144), however, it does appear “consistent” with the report of those expecting to retire within 10 years (227).

When you look at it as 61 and older, that total is 173 – which probably does account for most of those 227 who expect to retire within 10 years. It’s a consistent picture.
