FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Upon review of the file and records, the undersigned finds:

1. That by letter dated June 30, 1999, the Division assessed income tax, interest, and penalty against Protester for the 1994 tax year.
2. That the assessment is based on an Internal Revenue Service Revenue Agent Report dated April 4, 1997.
3. That Protester had not previously filed an Oklahoma income tax return for the year in question and did not file an amended return with the state subsequent to the changes made by the Internal Revenue Service.
4. That the aggregate amount assessed against Protester for the 1994 tax year, inclusive of interest accrued through June 30, 1999, is $2,461.91.
5. That Protester timely responded to the assessment, returning the assessment letter, asserting that she is not and does not know the corporate/juristic entity ANONYMOUS NAME and that the Tax Commission may be relying on fraudulent administrative actions without requisite underlying process by the Internal Revenue Service.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

WHEREFORE, premises considered, the undersigned concludes as a matter of law that the Tax Commission is vested with jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of this action, 68 O.S. 1991, § 207; that a proposed assessment is presumed correct and the taxpayer bears the burden of showing that it is incorrect, and in what respect, Enterprise Management Consultants, Inc. v. Oklahoma Tax Commission, 768 P.2d 359 (Okla. 1988); that except in those circumstances where an IRS revision affects items or matters relating to allocation or apportionment, the Tax Commission is bound by the changes made by the IRS, Rule 710:50-3-8(d) of the Oklahoma Administrative Code; that the information furnished by the IRS shall be that upon which any tax liability is computed, Rule 710:50-5-10(a) of the Oklahoma Administrative Code; and that Protester has neither asserted any cognizable factual errors nor presented any justiciable issues of law in regard to the proposed action of the Division, Rule 710:1-5-47 of the Oklahoma Administrative Code.

DISPOSITION

THEREFORE, based on the above and foregoing findings and conclusions, it WAS DETERMINED that the protest be denied. It WAS further DETERMINED that the amount in controversy, plus any additional accrued and accruing interest, be fixed as the deficiency due and owing.
