CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

2. The Oklahoma Vehicle License and Registration Act was not enacted for the purpose of determining the ownership of a licensed vehicle, and the issuance or revocation of a certificate of title by the Commission is not a positive determination of ownership of title to a vehicle. Lepley v. State of Oklahoma, 69 Okla.Crim. 379, 103 P.2d 568, 572, 146 A.L.R. 1323 (1940).

3. The Tax Commission is merely a custodian of the records required to file and index certificates of title so that "at all times it is possible to trace title to the vehicle designated." 47 O.S. 2001, § 1107.

4. If at any time, the Tax Commission determines that an applicant for a certificate of title to a vehicle is not entitled thereto, it may refuse to issue such certificate or to register such vehicle and for a similar reason, after ten (10) days’ notice and a hearing, it may revoke the registration and the certificate of title already acquired on any outstanding certificate of title. 47 O.S. Supp. 2004, § 1106(A)(1) and (2).

5. Here, no evidence has been presented to show a processing error on the part of the Division or a motor license agent with respect to the vehicle. Accordingly, Complainant’s application for revocation of Certificate of Title No. TITLE H should be and the same is hereby denied.

DISPOSITION

Based on the above and foregoing findings of fact and conclusions of law, it is ORDERED that the application for revocation of the Certificate of Title No. TITLE H issued to RESPONDENT on a 1990 Cadillac, VIN XYZ123, be denied.
