

2011 Practitioner Symposium

Hosted by the
Oklahoma Tax Commission

The Oklahoma Tax Commission has announced they will once again be presenting free seminars for tax professionals this fall. These seminars, which are geared towards the income tax return preparer community, will provide updates on the latest tax law changes as well as other electronic services available to the tax practitioner community and their clients.

These free 8-hour sessions are for tax professionals who are gearing up for the 2011 income tax filing season.

Come listen to representatives from the Oklahoma Tax Commission, Internal Revenue Service, Oklahoma Employment Security Commission, and the Social Security Administration to learn the latest changes to the tax laws as well as updates on electronic filing, electronic services, and more.
