2. The Tax Commission shall not retain any fee and refund any fee retained from the collection of city sales and use taxes remitted as a result of the prosecution of any criminal violations of a municipal ordinance; and
3. The Tax Commission shall pay to the municipality an amount equal to three-fourths of one percent ($\frac{3}{4}$ of 1%) of enhanced collections from any delinquent seller as a result of other compliance activities documented by the municipality or person acting under contract with such municipality.

To receive compensation, Municipality shall provide documentation of compliance activities which generated the enhanced collections. Documentation shall consist of reports, on forms prescribed by the Commission, listing the name of the delinquent seller, date of compliance activity, type of activity, and such other information as may be necessary to identify the delinquent seller, compliance activity, or enhanced collections.

The Commission shall provide reimbursements on a monthly basis and provide a monthly report to Municipality indicating, at a minimum, the name of the delinquent seller, amount of enhanced collections, and date of remittance by the delinquent seller in the previous month.

The Commission shall use its best efforts to cause reimbursements to be paid to Municipality no later than the tenth day of each calendar month following the month of receipt of the report of enhanced collections filed with the Commission.

Disputes Arising from Agreement
