Gross Receipts to the Treasury in April Show Growth for Third Time since New Year

OKLAHOMA CITY – April Gross Receipts to the Treasury are higher than the same month of last year, marking the third time in four months that collections have shown growth, State Treasurer Ken Miller announced today.

April receipts of $1.2 billion are up by $34.1 million, or 2.9 percent, compared to April of 2016. Collections in January and February of this year also showed growth, while March totals were down slightly.

“All April gross receipts add another mark in the tally of positive economic news,” Miller said. “Coupled with falling unemployment, increasing oil field activity, and rising consumer confidence and business conditions, indications are the Oklahoma economy is on the upswing. “

All major revenue streams, with the exception of corporate income tax, rose in April compared to the prior year.

Gross production tax collections are higher than the prior year for a seventh consecutive month. In April of last year, gross production receipts, at $20.8 million, were the lowest monthly total since May 1999. This April, gross production yielded $41.2 million, an increase of 97.5 percent.

About Gross Receipts to the Treasury

Since March 2011, the Office of the State Treasurer has issued the monthly Gross Receipts to the Treasury report, which provides a timely and broad view of the state’s macro economy.

It is provided in conjunction with the General Revenue Fund allocation report from the Office of Management and Enterprise Services, which provides important information to state agencies for budgetary planning purposes.

The General Revenue Fund receives less than half of the state’s gross receipts with the remainder paid in rebates and refunds, remitted to cities and counties, and placed into off-the-top earmarks to other state funds.
