* If you do not meet one of the above relationship tests then a protective order is only available if you are a victim of Stalking. Under the Protection from Domestic Abuse Act, "Stalking" means the willful, malicious, and repeated following or harassment of a person by an adult, emancipated minor, or minor thirteen (13) years of age or older, in a manner that would cause a reasonable person to feel frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed, or molested and actually causes the person being followed or harassed to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, threatened, harassed or molested. Stalking also means a course of conduct composed of a series of two or more separate acts over a period of time, however short, evidencing a continuity of purpose or unconsented contact with a person that is initiated or continued without the consent of the individual or in disregard of the expressed desire of the individual that the contact be avoided or discontinued. Unconsented contact or course of conduct includes, but is not limited to: (a.) following or appearing within the sight of that individual, (b.) approaching or confronting that individual in a public place or on private property, (c.) appearing at the workplace or residence of that individual, (d.) entering onto or remaining on property owned, leased, or occupied by that individual, (e.) contacting that individual by telephone, (f.) sending mail or electronic communications to that individual, or (g.) placing an object on, or delivering an object to, property owned, leased or occupied by that individual; 22 O.S. §60.1(2). If you are seeking a protective order as a victim of Stalking, and you do not meet one of the above relationship tests, you must have filed a complaint against the defendant with the proper law enforcement agency before filing this Petition (a copy of the complaint must be attached or provided at the hearing).
